Membership Details

Network Theatre Company is an amateur theatre company which stages productions in its own theatre (Network Theatre) located under the arches of Waterloo Station. You do not need to be a member to audition, but you must be a full member to participate in a production. If you are not already a member and are cast in a production, you will need to join before the first rehearsal. To do this, visit our website: membership.networktheatre.org

- Full membership costs £50 per year and entitles you to participate in as many Network Theatre Company productions as you like, subject to a successful audition.
- If you already hold Basic membership, you will need to upgrade to full membership to take part in this production, by payment of an additional £25.

I understand that I will need to be a full member of Network Theatre Company and pay all appropriate fees in order to take part in this production.
